POZO RIVER
VIGILANCE COMMITTEE
AT LAZY ARROW ON CAMATTA RANCH
www.PRVCatLazyArrow.com

PRVC at Lazy Arrow:

The Pozo River Vigilance Committee at Lazy Arrow (PRVC) is a Cowboy Action Shooting™ club located on the Camatta Ranch, a 32,000-acre working ranch located about 20 miles east of Santa Margarita, California in the heart of California's "Central Coast" - 35 miles inland from the Pacific Ocean and about halfway between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Our range consists of 12 Bays with Wild West facades, dirt berms, and Fort Morrison; a 100y, 300y, and Quigley (320y) long-range Bay. Our site features ample parking and space for up to 100 campers and trailers. Located in a wide canyon, the PRVC range offers a safe and fun shooting environment with a true Wild West feel.

Shooting Schedule:

Our regular shooting schedule is the fourth Saturday of every month with a start time of 10:00 a.m. (coffee and donuts at 9:00, and our posse meeting at 9:45). We shoot six stages per event with the exception of June, July, and August where we may shoot five stages if the summer's heat dictates. See our web site for special match events (Shootout at OK Corral, James Gang match, etc.).

Match Fees:

First-time guests shoot a free match, PRVC members are $15 per match, and non-members are $20 per match. Shooting at our range requires that you are a member in good standing of SASS (except for a shooter's first time).

The PRVC Gazette:

The club publishes a monthly newsletter entitled The PRVC Gazette that includes a wide range of topics about the club, safety, events, tech tips, SASS rules, and more. Back issues are posted on our web site at www.PRVCatLazyArrow.com. To receive our free monthly newsletter, please email: Deputy Roger Rapid at: roger@siminoff.net

Annual Match:

PRVC presents an exciting three-day match called the Lazy Arrow ShootOut each Memorial Day Weekend. Limited to 90 shooters, our annual match features a 12-stage main match (six stages per day) and side matches that include: warm up matches; pistol, rifle, and shotgun speed matches; long range, quick draw contest; and Mountain Man Mark's Revenge. Evening events include a dinner sponsored by our Match Director's, a potluck dinner, tall-tale contest, and poker tournament. Sunday evening boasts a gala Wild West BBQ dinner accompanied by a bluegrass band that is topped off by our Awards Ceremony.

Camping:

There's plenty of room for dry camping, so shooters can come out on Friday after 3:00 p.m. and can be fresh for their shoot on Saturday morning. Hot showers and flush toilets are located in the camping area. Generators allowed. No open fires. Pets must be on leash. (No pets on range.)

Membership:

About Cowboy Action Shooting:

Created 45 years ago, Cowboy Action Shooting (CAS) is the sport of using pre-1900 single-action guns (either replicas or originals) typical of the Wild West, and shooting against the clock at metal targets arranged in an array of intricate shooting sequences called "scenarios." In addition to sharpening one's shooting skills, Cowboy Action Shooting calls for quick thinking, improves hand/eye coordination and motor skills, and helps to develop response time.

Information:

Our website is rich with information about PRVC and cowboy shooting, and features detailed pages on Our History, Schedule of Events, Our Annual Match, Membership, Newsletters, the Sheriff's Posse, our Bays, Safety, Getting Started in Cowboy Action Shooting, and much more. www.PRVCatLazyArrow.com
